VILLA READY TO SHOW TEETH

He Will Resist Any Attempt by Carranza to Dominate Northern Mexico

$5,000,000 IS IN SIGHT FOR ANOTHER REVOLT

Huerta Lingers at Puerto Mexico for Ships for All of Party; Extradition Hint

WASHINGTON, July 20.—That he fears trouble between Carranza and Villa if Carranza assumes supreme authority in northern Mexico was admitted today by George Carothers, state department agent with Villa, in a report received by Secretary of State Bryan.

Carothers said that so long as his own domination in Northern Mexico is not threatened, Villa will reign outwardly friendly to Carranza, but if it is attacked he will show his teeth.

Secretary Bryan is investigating reports that ammunition is being smuggled across the border into Mexico. At the latest reports Mexico City was quiet today.

$5,000,000 For Another Revolt

EL PASO, July 20.—Five million dollars in money and 5000 men with arms and ammunition available, it is claimed, await a leader for a new revolt in Mexico against the constitutional government. Men on the border, who claim to know the details of the new movement, say it is being fostered by men whose fortunes in Mexico are menaced by the reforms which the constitutionalists demand.

Extraordinary precautions are being taken to prevent its becoming known just who is back of the movement, and care is being taken to prevent the new revolt from being launched prematurely. It is not planned to openly take the field against Carranza until the constitutionalists have established their government in place of the provisional government of Carranza.

To make the Carranza government permanent is the hope of some of the men who are said to be connected with the new revolt, but the majority of those opposing constitutionalism rule realize that it can be only a short time until President Carranza will retire in favor of an elected president, who necessarily will be a constitutionalist, and they are urging haste in planning for the opposition to that government.

Huerta May Be Extradited

CHIHUAHUA CITY, July 20.—Prominent constitutionalists today declared that Huerta's extradition for trial on the charge of complicity in the murder of the late President Madero will be asked of whatever country he finds refuge. They claim it will be impossible for any country to refuse to surrender him in the circumstances.

Huerta Defers Departure

PUERTO MEXICO, July 20.—Gen. Huerta refused to leave Mexico today, or until his entire party is safe aboard ship. With former War Minister Blanquet and their respective families he still plans to go to Jamaica on the German cruiser Dresden. The remainder of the party of one hundred and ten persons will sail on the steamer City of Mexico. General Huerta chartered the latter vessel for Sunday, but the ship could not arrive here until Tuesday. If all of the party are aboard ship by Tuesday noon, Huerta will probably sail then. Meantime he lives in his private car surrounded by an armed bodyguard.

RUSSIAN GIRL ARRESTED IN FRANCE AS A SPY

TOULON, France, July 20.—A pretty Russian girl named Claire Popiersch, who was arrested today on a charge of spying on an important scale on various forts and naval bases and also with providing naval officers with a liberal supply of cocaine, pretended that the notes found in her possession were material for a sensational novel which she hoped to copyright in the United States.

This statement aroused the suspicion of the magistrate and he discovered that the notes were "copyrighted" for a military power, not the United States.

SLEW WOMAN HE LOVED THEN KILLED SELF

LOS ANGELES, July 20.—Because she refused to marry him, Carl H. Haag, aged 40, a contractor, shot and killed Mrs. Edna Sikes, aged 37, a widow, then suicided, shooting himself in the head. The crime was committed in the presence of the woman's son, Leon, aged 6 years. The woman recently came here from Louisville.

King to Confer With Leaders on Home Rule Bill

LONDON, July 20.—Premier Asquith formally notified the House of Commons today of the conference called for tomorrow by King George, of Premier Asquith, the king's advisers and supporters of both sides in the anti-home rule fight. The king will meet the conferees at Buckingham Palace. Much interest is already being manifested. Speaker James Lowther of the House of Commons will preside. Meanwhile debate on the bill amending the home rule measure will be suspended.

GEORGIA ADVERSE TO SUFFRAGE FOR WOMEN

ATLANTA (Ga.) July 20.—An adverse report was recently recommended by the Senate Committee on constitutional amendments on the measure to give Georgia women the right to vote in State and county elections. Similar action was taken recently by a House committee.

CHINA COMING ON—IS TO HAVE NATIONAL ANTHEM

PEKING, July 20.—China is to have a national anthem. It has been composed by Ching Chien, minister of agriculture and commerce. The music has an appropriately oriental flavor, and the anthem promises soon to become really the people's song.

The heart of the people is best disclosed through its ballads, and China's new anthem is a vindication of republican ideas, with, of course, emphasis laid upon the old precedents set centuries ago by China-wise men, Confucius and Mencius.

BISHOP HUGHES WILL SPEAK TONIGHT

Eloquent Churchman Will Talk on "California Dry" at First M. E. Church

WILL GIVE CLEAR-CUT REASONS FOR "DRY" VOTE

Stirring Music to Add to the Interest—Meeting Will Be Rousing One

Bishop E. H. Hughes of the Methodist denomination, widely known as an eloquent and convincing speaker, will address a mass meeting at the First Methodist church this evening at 8 o'clock, speaking in the interests of "California Dry in 1914" under the auspices of the California Dry Federation.

Bishop Hughes is so well known that he needs no words of commendation as a speaker, nor is any persuasion necessary to gain an audience for him. On the contrary, the house will doubtless be too small to hold all who will wish to hear this brilliant and forceful churchman whom the Golden State is proud to lay a large claim to. It is expected that there will be some telling arguments presented by this well informed orator as to why California should sweep the curse of the saloon from out her borders. No one, whether for or against voting California dry, or possibly undecided as to the wisest course to pursue in this important issue, should fail to hear Bishop Hughes. He will present in clear cut words the reasons why this commonwealth will be supremely benefited by going dry.

First Methodist Choir to Sing

It is expected that the First Methodist Church choir will render stirring music for the occasion. Every member of the choir is requested to be on hand at the church at 7:30 o'clock this evening for a preliminary rehearsal. They are requested to be present at 7:30 SHARP, as the time for rehearsal will be brief.

UNEARTHED PLOT TO SMUGGLE CHINESE

PHILADELPHIA, July 20.—Conducting a country-wide investigation, the bureau of immigration has unearthed a Chinese immigration scandal which is assuming large proportions.

So far the government's investigation has revealed the fact that the Chinese exclusion act to an amazing extent has been nullified by graft.

The On Leong tong and the Hip Sing tong gamblers, grafters, opium smugglers and vice promoters, who have established Chinatowns in every large city of the country through the connivance of grafting police, also have invaded the immigration service.

Chinese Name Interpreters

Through such influence as the tongs have been able to exert over tenderloin politicians, the Chinatown tongs have named the Chinese interpreters of the bureau of immigration. Immigration officials thus have been at the mercy of the crooked interpreters in the pay of the Chinatown tongs. Between the Chinatown tongs and the interpreters they have managed to get into the government service and evidence has been manufactured freely to obtain the admittance of Chinese.

The tongs are said to have paid a standard rate of $500 for every Chinaman smuggled in through the connivance of their interpreters and the Chinamen brought into the country in this manner are in turn declared to have been turned over to the tongs to work for them in a sort of bondage for a number of years to repay the tong leaders for importing them.

CHILD SCOLDED, SWALLOWED BICHLORIDE OF MERCURY

LOS ANGELES, July 20.—Helen Hawley, aged 11, today swallowed bichloride of mercury tablets because she was scolded for her failure to complete her kitchen tasks, according to a report of the police. Emergency treatment was given at the hospital. The doctors believe she will recover.

UNIONISTS WILL HAVE NATION-WIDE AID

Stockton Locked-Out Unions Get Cheering Word From Late Meeting of Leaders

EVERY UNION MAN IN STATE MAY BE ASSESSED 5 CENTS

International Unions Also to Aid—Employers Say They Will Fight to Finish

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—The locked-out union men at Stockton will have the nationwide support of unionists in their fight against the Merchants and Employers' Association there.

This was announced today as the result of a joint meeting of the committees representing the State Building Trades Council and the State Federation of Labor. The meeting was held Saturday but the result was withheld until today. Every union man in California, it is asserted, will be assessed five cents per week, this source providing several thousand dollars weekly to aid the Stockton union men. In addition to this, all national and international unions having affiliations with the Stockton unions have promised their aid.

The Merchants & Employers' Association is showing no signs of abating the fight to make Stockton an open shop labor town. The association predicts success and promises to carry the fight to a finish.

STATE RAILROAD COMMISSION TO PROBE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—With the announced determination to probe the financial affairs of the United Railroads Company, operating San Francisco street cars, the State Railroad Commission began a hearing today into the disappearance of $1,096,000 of the corporation's funds into the Solano Irrigated Farms project where it is alleged to have been diverted by former President Patrick Calhoun.

The hearing will probably have an important bearing on the proposition of the city to acquire all the street car lines and operate them municipally. Many of the past and present United Railroads officials have been subpoenaed, and the commission immediately took up the question of how and when the money was diverted and what steps had been taken to recover it. Calhoun, now in New York, is expected to appear and testify before the hearing closes.

RACKET WELDERS IN BIG TOURNEY

BOSTON, July 20.—Longwood's classic tennis tournament, second in importance only to the national championships at Newport, began today with a galaxy of the country's premier players, including many who are working out for the Davis Cup team.

It is the 24th tournament held by the club, and the winner will be called on to play W. M. Johnson, of California, who won the championship last year through the default of M. E. McLaughlin, who won in England bringing back the Davis cup. E. P. Larned also holds a leg of the cup. The eastern doubles championship will be started tomorrow.

Among the players of national standing entered at Longwood are: M. E. McLaughlin, the national champion; R. N. Williams 2nd, Wallace F. Johnston, R. D. Little, William M. Johnston and F. B. Alexander, former champions of the United States in singles and doubles; R. L. Murray and Herbert Hahn, the California collegians who have been distinguishing themselves in eastern tournaments; T. R. Pell, F. C. Inman, G. M. Church and Dean Mathey of New York; W. N. Niles, A. S. Dabney, G. P. Gardner, Jr., W. M. Washburn and E. H. Whitney of former eastern doubles championship teams and H. C. Johnson and R. C. Seaver, former Massachusetts champions in singles and doubles.

YORBA LINDA WATER CASE COMPROMISE NOW AGREED UPON

Bond Issue of $175,000 to Be Cancelled and Control of Water Company Goes to Users at Once

A compromise agreement has been entered into for the settlement of the Yorba Linda Water rights case. Compromise judgment is being prepared and will probably be entered this afternoon.

Under the terms of the agreement, a bond issue of $175,000 issued by the Yorba Linda Water Co. and upon which the water users have been paying interest will be cancelled. The control of the water company will be turned over immediately to the water users.

The attorney's fees for the plaintiffs in this case came to $33,000, which will be charged up against the water company.

This is one of the most important water cases ever tried in this county. The plaintiffs represent 1700 acres of 3000 acres in the Yorba Linda tract. They asserted that the defendants, H. W. Frank, Peter Janss, M. N. Newmark and Jacob Stern, who promoted the tract, through their control of the water company issued $175,000 bonds without receiving any consideration. The bonds were held by the Janss Investment Co., supposedly for the four men. On these bonds the water users were paying interest. They had thought they were getting their water rights free, but found this incumbency a heavy burden. Suit was brought to get rid of the bonds. That will be accomplished by the compromise.

This morning in Judge Thomas' courtroom a meeting of the Yorba Linda Water Users Association was held. Attorneys Francis J. Heney, Carr and Farrar addressed the users. They said that the defendants had agreed to accept a compromise. The terms had been accepted by the executive committee of the association, and the association as a body was asked to pass upon the terms. By unanimous vote the acceptance was made.

The attorneys then went to the Rossmore Hotel to meet the attorneys for the defendants, to put the agreement into form for entering judgment.

Under the contract with the association, the attorneys for the plaintiffs are to get $33,000 attorneys' fees. By the compromise this will be charged against the water company, in which the members of the association own fifty-three per cent of the stock. That means that those land owners who did not join in the suit will have to stand part of the cost of the attorneys' fees, and also that whatever stock is held by Newmark, Stern, Frank or Janss will have to pay their pro rata.

The main fight was on the bond issue, and it is proposed to burn those bonds at a big celebration to be held later at Yorba Linda.

2,026,000,000 BIRDS IN EAST, U. S. FIGURES

WASHINGTON, July 20.—There are 1,000,000 robins in the eastern United States, according to the census of birds, which for the first time in its history, the government is now taking.

Timber land supports a much smaller bird population than an equal acre of farm land. East of the Mississippi river the robin averages about fifty pairs to the square mile.

The most numerous bird life reported is in Chevy Chase, Md. Approximately 2,026,000,000 native field birds, exclusive of sparrows, inhabit the United States east of the great plains states.

GRAIN-GRADING BILL IS INTRODUCED IN HOUSE

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The grain-grading bill, approved by Secretary Houston and the House committee on agriculture, has been introduced in the House by Representative Moss of Indiana.

The measure provides for the federal inspection of all grain shipped in interstate commerce. The secretary of agriculture is authorized to prescribe grades for grain and appoint inspectors to test it and register it according to its grade.

ORANGES ARE BEING SHIPPED UNDER FALSE DESCRIPTION

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The Department of Agriculture has discovered that certain oranges are being shipped under false descriptions in the bills of lading or invoices as to their variety. The department has examined some of these shipments and has found that while these oranges are being sold to consignees as being a better variety than they are, the actual boxes of oranges are either not labeled at all or are not labeled in accordance with the variety mentioned in the records of sale. Some of these oranges are represented, for example, as being Valencia, and examination shows them to be another variety.

The matter is being carefully investigated with a view to determining the rights of the department under the Food and Drugs Act to take action against such shipments. In the meantime, jobbers and others are advised to examine oranges packed in boxes either unlabeled or without any distinctive varietal designation, in order to satisfy themselves whether these oranges are as represented by the producer or shipper.

Similarly, retail purchasers who are in the habit of buying oranges according to variety should assure themselves that the oranges are as represented by the dealer.

ON TRIAL FOR KILLING OF EDITOR

Mme. Caillaux Demands Exclusion of Women From Court as She Faces Murder Charge

TELLS OF CALMETTE'S ATTACKS ON HUSBAND

Beautiful French Woman Said Husband Was Ambitious

Only for France

PARIS, July 20.—The trial of Madame Henriette Caillaux, who shot and killed editor Gaston Calmette of Le Figaro, began at the Palais de Justice at noon today, Judge Albanet presiding. No women were admitted in accordance with the defendant's request. The court room was packed. Police were requested to restrain the crowd outside.

The first witness was Police Commissioner Carpin who investigated the accused woman's movements prior to the shooting. The prisoner was generally calm. Her husband was excited, smoking innumerable cigarettes and pounding the table, shouting excitedly while Madame Caillaux breakfasted. The defendant wept as the indictment charging her with murder was read.

Madame Caillaux told the story of the shooting, prefacing it with a declaration of affection for her husband. She said she went to Le Figaro office to interview Calmette because she knew her husband had planned to go there to punish him. She denied going with the intent to kill. She said she took a revolver merely to aid her in forcing Calmette to surrender the letters.

"I married Leo Claretie in 1894," the defendant testified. "I had two daughters. One died in infancy, the other, Germaine, is still living. My married life was unhappy and in 1908 I got a divorce. My fortune was ample, enough to permit me to live where and as I pleased. I had known Monsieur Caillaux for some time, and after my divorce came to appreciate his qualities all the more. We were married in 1911, he being premier of France at the time. We had the deepest affection for each other. From him I never had anything but the tenderest of attentions, and in return my love for him was unalterable."

The judge then suggested that it was rumored that their relations were now less cordial. This Madame Caillaux denied, and continued: "My husband confided to me his most intimate dreams. His political ups and downs were mine also. Knowing him as I did, I knew his ambition was only for France's good." Here the witness broke down and sobbed into her handkerchief. The judge then introduced Figaro's campaign against Caillaux.

"That abominable campaign," cried the witness, "began two years ago. To enumerate all the baseness and perfidies voiced against my husband is impossible. I could not pick up the paper without reading them. They accused my husband of being interested in foreign banks. They spread evil stories and calumnies concerning his private life. After he became minister of finance the attacks were increased. In Le Figaro, Editor Calmette conducted the campaign with amazing violence and finally fell back on private letters. These letters were scorned by my husband, but he knew public opinion was being aroused by them. On Friday, March 13, Le Figaro published his letter to me signed 'Ton Jo.' I was stunned. I lived in a trance. Only one person could have given Calmette that letter and that person had two other letters of extreme intimacy written by my husband to me before our marriage."

Asked what was in them, the defendant replied: "Personal details."

Story of the Tragedy

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMS

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, July 20.—A rare morsel awaited Paris today. Mme. Joseph Caillaux, beautiful wife of the ex-premier and former minister of finance, was placed on trial, charged with the shooting and killing of Gaston Calmette, editor of "Le Figaro." The trial of the woman whose act all but upset a cabinet, threw France into a political turmoil the like of which it has hardly seen since the Dreyfus case, and resulted in her husband's retirement as a cabinet officer, attracted an enormous crowd to the Palace of Justice.

Heavy police and military precautions have been taken to stop rioting which is considered certain about the Palace of Justice. During the trial, in order to avoid unnecessary risk of personal violence against the fair prisoner, she will be locked in the tower of the Conciergerie, famous as the prison of Maria Antoinette. This ancient structure now forms part of the more modern Palace of Justice.

Scores of witnesses have been summoned in what is expected to be one of the most thrilling trials in the history of France.

Early

Los Angeles Tribune. Walnut ranchers at Whittier are rejoicing because of the report made by A. H. Dunlap, president of the Whittier Walnut Growers' association, who declared yesterday, after thoroughly going over the many acres of walnut lands, that the crops this year will outdo anything in the history of the industry.

Prosperity has turned its smile in the direction of the walnut growers, is the declaration of Mr. Dunlap, as well as other officers of the association. It is believed that the nuts will be larger and better than heretofore and that the prices will go up on the market, due to the poor condition of the same variety of nuts in other portions of California.

"TIZ" FOR TIRED SORE, ACHING FEET

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet, swollen, had smelly, sweaty feet. No more pain in corns, callouses or bunions. No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "TIZ".

"TIZ" draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet; "TIZ" is magical; "TIZ" is grand; "TIZ" will cure your foot troubles so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore, swollen or tired. Get a 25 cent box at any drug or department store, and get relief.

The largest crop from any one section throughout the state will be shipped from Whittier, it is reported, and because of the excellent weather conditions everything points to an early trimming of the trees. It is expected that the nuts will be ready for shipment by the early part of September, which will be several weeks previous to any other year.

According to statistics compiled by the members of the growers' association, after close observation of the trees, there will be an increase of twenty-five carloads of nuts this year over the output of last year. The number of cars should reach ninety, in the event of predictions being accurate, while last season sixty-five carloads was the greatest shipment.

The larger bulk of the nuts will be classified as firsts, it is believed, the good condition of the trees and the fertile condition of the soil having almost entirely done away with fruit classed as seconds.

Fourteen cents a pound was given for firsts and 10 cents for seconds last year, but it is expected that the prices will advance this year because of the bad output which is expected from other parts of California.

YOUNG MR. HUSBAND SHIRKS PATERNITY

Prefers Polite Revelry—High
Rent Also Factor in Prevalent
Lack of Children

CHICAGO, July 20.—Young Mr. Husband of moderate means who sacrifices his parenthood so that he may live in a flat with a good view of the lake and a southern exposure, or that he may engage in polite revelry, came in for a scoring today by W. Lester Bodine, superintendent of compulsory education, in charge of the city census just completed. Statistics gathered so far, Bodine states, indicate that the fashionable apartment house districts of Chicago, especially along the north shore, are sadly in lack of children.

"In considering the state of affairs which causes a lack of children along the north shore apartment house district," said Bodine, "I believe the society man is more to blame than the society woman. Quite often the gay life of young husbands sets a pace that kills the health of fatherhood, and children that do come are weaklings. Prosperity to many brings self-indulgence. Many prosperous men, you will notice, play with their automobile like the poorer man would play with his baby."

"Another tendency that causes race suicide is the high rent of desirable apartments. A family with an average income desires a good flat. Good flats are expensive. A young couple can often afford a four-room abode, which furnishes sleeping space for two. The family is naturally prejudiced in the matter of children under such circumstances and little by little the desire for family additions is smothered in the artificial economy of their new lives."

The Twenty-first ward, populated mostly by folks of moderate means, is keeping its reputation for a small birth-rate, Bodine stated. The Twenty-fifth ward, where there are more young brides living than in any quarter of Chicago, threatens to fall into line with the Twenty-first.

WESTERN MINERS FEDERATION MEETS

Butte Labor War Will Be Chief
Topic at Annual Meet
Opening in Denver

DENVER, July 20.—The recent dissection in Butte in the ranks of the Western Federation of Miners which resulted in several serious riots, was the principal topic of discussion when the annual convention of the federation was called to order here today by President Charles H. Moyer. It had been expected that the Michigan copper strike would occupy most of the attention of the meetings but the critical Butte situation overshadowed it.

President Moyer was summoned to Butte last month as soon as the trouble began and remained in Montana during all of the exciting days which followed. It is expected he will make a personal report to the convention regarding the situation and recommend a course of action. In past conventions the Butte delegation has been nearly the largest in attendance. The Calumet copper strike will also be discussed at length. President Moyer and Auditor C. H. Tanner will report on the final outcome of the trouble, with special reference to their experiences at Hancock, when they were deported by a mob of armed men.

One hundred and fifty delegates are here. The convention will last two weeks.

The Butte situation, which is compelling the attention of the federation delegates, is outlined by John M. O'Neill, editor of the official paper of the Western Federation, as follows:

Dissatisfaction had long existed among the 8,900 members of the Butte local. Charges were made that national officers were perpetrating themselves in office, and as a consequence were able to own rich ranches and summer homes in Colorado and Nevada. Special assessments for the Michigan strike were alleged to be excessive.

National officers and adherents of the federation say they are prepared to refute these complaints. They admit that local officials of the union at Butte were lax in the performance of their duties, but say that is because members of the Butte organization incorporated a clause in the local by-laws making it impossible for a union official to serve two terms. As to the exorbitant assessments it is pointed out that the total assessments for the twenty-one years of the union's existence have been only $74.50. This is a per capita assessment of $3.50 a year. Concerning the charge that national officers are running a steam roller for their own re-election, it is declared President Charles Moyer recently arranged for the election of officers by a referendum.

National officers of the Western Federation assert that members of the I. W. W. are responsible for all the trouble at Butte. At the present convention a committee will be appointed to visit Butte and conduct an election of new officers for the local there. President Moyer predicts that the "second union" formed at Butte under the leadership of Muckie McDonald will soon fall. Affiliation with the American Federation of Labor will be denied, they say, since only one organization of a craft is admitted.

ROAD SIGNS POINT WAY TO THE BEACH

Newport News: At a meeting of the Newport Beach Chamber of Commerce, held in the west room of the city hall Tuesday evening, a communication from the Automobile Club of Southern California was read that stated that the club had finished the placing of twenty guide posts between Los Angeles and Newport Beach, directing people to this city.

Those present at the meeting were President F. W. Beckwith, Secretary Max R. Wallace, J. P. Greely, J. A. Porter, W. W. Wilson, W. A. Cornelius, L. S. Wilkinson, W. W. Crosier, Lew H. Wallace, Louis Ludwig, F. E. Scott, A. M. Tweedie and Stanley J. Castleman.

Mr. Scott was representing a magazine he is getting out called "South Coast Facts." He proposed to get out 10,000 copies of the magazine each month and have it liberally illustrated with views from the South Coast beaches. The magazine was endorsed from an advertising standpoint by the Chamber of Commerce.

The harbor committee reported that W. S. Collins, owner of Balboa Island, was considering the matter of having the island annexed to the city.

CAMP MEETING WAS OPENED SUNDAY

Southern California Methodists
Hold Keys of Huntington
Beach Camp Grounds

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 20.—There are lively times here now on the Tent City camp grounds around the big auditorium, which is the summer center of Methodism for all Southern California.

The Holiness Association, in session since July 2, held the fort until yesterday morning, when the keys were passed to the Methodists, who will remain in possession of the beautiful summer home place until August 2.

Next Sunday, July 26, at 2:30 p. m., the new church erected in this city by the Methodists, at a cost of $10,000, will be dedicated by Rev. Charles Edward Locke, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Los Angeles.

The speakers for the week at the camp meetings will be: Monday, Rev. T. B. Hughes, father of Bishop Hughes; Tuesday, Rev. A. R. Moore, pastor of Grace Church, Los Angeles; Wednesday, Rev. F. G. H. Stevens of Pasadena; Thursday, Rev. S. J. Rogers of Los Angeles; Friday, Rev. W. E. Tilroe; Saturday, Rev. Mr. Lamport of Pomona; and Rev. H. V. McCombs, district superintendent of Spanish and Portuguese in Southern California.

LEG BROKEN IN A FALL FROM WAGON

Ralph Beals Victim of Peculiar Accident at Pitting
Camp

A somewhat peculiar accident in which Ralph Beals, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Beals, 821 E. street, this city, had his right leg broken, occurred Saturday afternoon at the apricot pitting camp of Fred C. Rowland on South McClay street. Young Beals was riding on a wagon with several other boys. A low-hanging limb was reached and in trying to prevent one of the other boys being knocked down by the branch Beals lost his balance, catching his right leg in the spokes of one of the wagon wheels. A physician was immediately summoned and he found that both bones had been broken just below the knee. Beals is resting comfortably, according to the doctor's report.

Breaks Leg
While scuffling with another boy at Delhi yesterday Arnulfo Silva tripped on an obstruction and suffered a fracture of one of his legs. He was immediately given medical attendance and is now resting easily.

Lip Cut in Fall
Harry Arnfield fell from his motorcycle yesterday afternoon while he was on his way home from the Forster brothers' barbecue at Capistrano and sustained a cut on his upper lip. Doctors found it necessary to take several stitches in the laceration.

TWO BALLOONS LAND IN COUNTY

California, Winner of Race,
Descends at Placentia;
Fairy at Anaheim

Two of the four balloons which started from Venice yesterday in the free-for-all race were visible from Santa Ana at about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The two gas bags were presumably the ones which landed in Orange county, one the California, largest of the balloons, carrying two passengers, one a woman, in addition to the pilot, landing at Placentia at 6:30 o'clock and the other, the Fairy, smallest of the entries and barely capable of carrying the pilot, landing within a few miles of the California at Anaheim.

Fifty thousand spectators cheered the aeronauts on their way at the start of the race, says the Los Angeles Examiner. The balloons were all down last night before dark within a radius of forty miles from the starting point and without accident. The unique result of the race was the fact that the largest of the balloons won by but a few miles over the smallest.

The Florence, piloted by Jack O'Connell, came down at Santa Fe Springs, near Whittier, at 6:14, having taken the same general direction as the other two balloons.

The Venice, which was to have carried Al Carter and his bride, but which was released with Mr. Carter alone in the basket, came down at Sherman at 4:30, owing to leaks in the bag. After making a safe landing Mr. Carter was unable to anchor his bag and it floated away to the top of one of the Hollywood hills.

How They Finished
Fairy, up 2:48, down 5:30; finish, Anaheim; pilot, L. L. Irvin; capacity, 12,000 cubic feet.

Venice, up 2:57, down 4:30; finish, Sherman; pilot, Al Carter; capacity, 35,000 cubic feet.

Florence, up 3:04, down 6:14; finish, Santa Fe Springs; pilot, Jack M. O'Connell; capacity, 40,000 cubic feet.

California, up 3:18, down 6:30; finish, Placentia; pilot, Ed. Unger; capacity, 72,000 cubic feet.

The height to which the balloons ascended was estimated variously by the aeronauts. Irvin, in the Fairy, says his aneroid barometer registered 2000 meters, which would be between 6000 and 7000 feet. O'Connell estimated his altitude at 4000 feet. Carter said he made an altitude of 2700 feet. The California kept much the same altitude and course as the Fairy.

PACIFIC FLOTILLA TO BE FITTED WITH NEW GUNS

SAN DIEGO, July 20.—Before sailing for Mare Island Saturday, Lieut. LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody
Will Know

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Advertisement.

TIGHTENS REINS OVER BERRY DEALERS

McPhee Says He Will Hold Store Proprietor Responsible Also

A double-barreled responsibility is to be insisted upon by George McPhee, county sealer of weights and measures, in his relations with berry dealers. Hitherto McPhee has been scouting for the berry grower or salesman who brings berries into Santa Ana for sale to the local dealers, who sell to consumers. Hereafter McPhee will continue his watch of the man who brings berries in, but he will also hold responsible any dealer who purchases short weight berries.

Under the city ordinance it is an offense for a dealer to have short weight berries in his possession. Under the law raspberries and loganberries should weigh eight ounces net per box, and all other berries twelve ounces net. McPhee has arrested several Japanese for bringing in short weight boxes, but even at that some of the dealers have been purchasing and offering for sale short weight boxes. McPhee gets up at 5:30 o'clock each morning and tries to inspect all batches of berries brought into town, but he has found that he is unable to get his eyes on quantities of berries that are shipped in. Last Saturday he learned that one grocer here had received seven crates of berries from Los Angeles. McPhee and City Recorder Willson discussed the matter and decided to allow the grocer to fill the short weight boxes. It took twenty-three boxes to bring the 210 boxes in the seven crates to full weight. The grocer could have been prosecuted but McPhee decided that warning should be given and a new policy instituted. That policy is: If a dealer accepts short weight berries he shall be held responsible and he shall be prosecuted.

McPhee proposes to arrest the person who holds the berries for sale at retail if the boxes are short, as well as arrest the men who sold them to the retailer.

TIGERS CLAW MOOSE 6 TO 5

Brown, With Lame Arm, Holds Felines Down—Good Game

BY HOMER RUNNE
Deck's Stags succeeded in clambering out of the quince orchard to a certain extent yesterday. The count stood 5 to 6 in favor of the Los Angeles Tigers when the final man trotted across the plate. And another thing that aided the bugs to a realization that the Stags are not yet entirely ready for the discards was that they (the Stags) refrained from putting more than six black marks in the error column.

The game proved to be a fairly respectable pastime throughout. In spite of the fact that Midge Brown went into the game with a lame wing he held the Felines down to eight hits. Brown's backing was fairly good. In the ninth it looked as though Brown had the game on ice. There was one down when Callen massaged the bulb for a base knock, bringing in the winning run.

Hal it not been for Brown's lame arm the Stags would undoubtedly have come off victorious. Both teams worked like Trojans in all the sessions. The Tigers were able to play somewhat more air-tight ball than the

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

Eat Less Meat if You Feel Backachy or Have Bladder Trouble

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—Advertisement.

Stags and this was mainly responsible for the fact that, although Lee Brown, Freeman and Allen registered a two-hassock knock each and Leak two of this variety, the Stags could not rattle the gong offener.

Larsen was hammered quite freely during the affray. Besides the two-base clouds noted above Kelley rammed out a brace of base knocks and Freeman and Allen one each. Leak registered with a sacrifice.

SHAMROCK HALTED BY HEAVY SEAS

PLYMOUTH, Eng., July 20.—The Shamrock IV, which sailed Saturday on its transatlantic voyage, was obliged to put in here for shelter because of heavy weather. It will remain at this port until the weather conditions improve.

It has just leaked out that the militant suffragettes made two attempts to damage the challenger for the America's cup. The first effort was just before it was launched. At this time two women were found one night alongside the shed in which it was being built. It was suspected that they were there for the purpose of doing some injury to the vessel and they were driven out of the yards by watchmen.

The second attempt was made when the Shamrock IV was put back on the ways to have its keel altered. A woman was half way across the gangway connecting the yacht with the dock when discovered by watchmen. The circumstances on this occasion as well as on the previous one were such that it was certain the women were bent on mischief. The last woman, like the first two, was put out of the yard, but none of the women was arrested.

FLAT ADVANCE R. R. RATES
I. C. C. to Announce Decision in Companies' Appeal for Rate Increase This Week

WASHINGTON, July 20.—While the official announcement of the interstate commerce commission in the matter of the proposed five per cent increase in rates by the eastern railroads is not expected to be made public until Tuesday, it can be asserted that the decision will not grant the flat increase. Some increases in class rates will be permitted, but the commission flatly will disapprove of increase in commodity rates. Moreover, the commission will insist on the adoption of plans which will mean an economical management of the roads and which will, it is asserted, save to the roads no less than $25,000,000 annually.

But after all the roads will not fare so badly. Some twenty per cent of the eastern railroad business is in class freights—that is freight in packages, crates, such as manufactured products and the like, and they will get increased returns on some of this business. But the roads whose business is principally hauling ore, coal, coke, iron, grain and such commodities can be loaded, hauled and unloaded in trainload lots and with no loss for delays in shipping will gain little by the commission's decision.

Matters Involved
In summing up the practices of the railroads, which when discontinued will net the companies at least $25,000,000, the commission's decision will cite the following:
Lighterage and floatage at New York City.
Lighterage and terminal charges at Chicago.
Loading and unloading of carload lots.

Free collections and deliveries.
Free wharfage and dockage.
Free reconsignment of freight.
Passes and free transportation of private cars.
Free switching of cars.
Trap-car service known as "spotting."

Accident Occurred at Anaheim Friday Night—Victim in Hospital

ANAHEIM, July 20.—O. E. Poling of Long Beach was perhaps fatally injured shortly before midnight Friday night when the automobile he was driving collided with that of M. W. Tilley of San Diego at the western limits of Anaheim.

Tilley, en route to San Diego, accompanied by a party of National Guardsmen, was entering the city when Poling, in an endeavor to pass a heavily laden auto truck, swung into their car, totally demolishing both machines and throwing the occupants violently to the ground. Poling was projected through the windshield. Later the victims were removed to the Anaheim Sanatorium where it was ascertained that Poling had sustained a broken skull, and but little hope was entertained for his recovery.

The members of the other party were able to proceed on their way in another car, as the soldiers had to report for duty at San Diego.

PROTEST AGAINST LOCATING SKATING RINK IN VICINITY

Tonight when the City Trustees meet a remonstrance will be received from residents of the vicinity of Third and French streets against the location of a skating rink at Third and French streets. Two weeks ago a skating rink man asked for a permit to locate a rink at Second and Bush streets, and that location was objected to by one or two trustees on account of the noise.

A few months ago a rink at that place was productive of considerable annoyance. Jackson, the skating rink man, said he could get a location at Third and French. The matter was referred to a committee. Now come residents who declare that they do not want a skating rink in the neighborhood.

LIMITING CAMPAIGN EXPENDITURES

The lower house of Congress passed a bill a few days ago, to limit campaign expenditures in any state to amounts contributed by actual residents of the state. Money for literature and speakers is excepted.

A careful distinction needs to be drawn between legitimate and illegitimate spending. Pay and transportation of speakers, hire of halls, postage, secretarial work, printing and advertising, are legitimate. Anything that tends to bring the real arguments of the campaign before the voters in a logical way is helpful to public intelligence.

Every congressional district has a group of men who claim to have political influence. They are "mixers," sometimes saloon-keepers, often people who frequent the loafing hang-outs of the neighborhood, or whose business brings them into contact with a wide range of people. They are mouthy fellows, who talk politics from New Year's to Christmas. They claim to sway the convictions of large groups of their fellow citizens. It is commonly understood that if a man cherishes the honorable ambition to run for office it is good judgment to "see" these men who have "influence" at their disposal.

Of course this is not bribery. Perish the thought! The time of these "workers" is so valuable that it must be liberally compensated to justify them in dropping the onerous duties of their regular employments.

But there is a growing suspicion that this influence, more or less for sale, is not so great as the possessors thereof maintain. It is highly probable that if all political machines and candidates were to decline to compensate these workers there would be no difference in the result at the polls. Certainly if Congress and the state legislatures could pass corrupt practice bills cutting off this great source of expenditure, it would meet with the warm approval of every one but the politicians.

PUBLIC UTILITY RESEARCH

Mayor Blankenburg of Philadelphia has taken the initiative in a movement which is unquestionably destined to have far-reaching consequences in the ultimate establishment of equitable relations between the American cities and the public utilities. His call for a conference in Philadelphia next fall for the formation of a permanent bureau of Public Utility Research is made with the hearty approval of the mayors of New York, Chicago, Cleveland and Dayton, and is based upon a determination of the executives of those cities that "rates and services for public utilities shall hereafter be based on the actual cost of providing and furnishing such service and on the actual value used and useful for such purposes, and not on the power of a monopoly to extort what rates it will, and not on a capitalization that represents merely the selling power of utility promoters."

This call for co-operation by American municipalities is thoroughly in line with modern business methods and is made necessary for two conclusive reasons: No city can acquire for itself the technical information required for an adequate representation of the rights of the people, and the utility corporations have already constituted themselves a close co-operative alliance, powerful and alert, and at the service of every member.

It is obvious that under existing conditions the cities of the country are at a disadvantage in their appeals to the various state public service commissions, being pitted against the best experts and the most able legal minds in the country, backed by full information and unlimited means. It is to remove this handicap and put the people on a basis of equality with the utility companies that the Bureau of Public Utility Research is projected.

Mayor Blankenburg's plan starts with the backing of the mayors of the largest and most progressive cities, and it deserves that which is equally important, the backing and cordial support of the smaller cities and of the public. This will certainly be given when the magnitude of the problems involved in the relations of the public to the utilities companies shall be fully understood and appreciated.

SO FAR AS HEARD FROM SANTA ANA IS IN LEAD
IN PER CAPITA WEALTH

The Register has no desire whatever to start something it can't finish, nor to finish anything that somebody else has started. But since Long Beach started something about its per capita wealth, as shown by bank deposits, and Redlands made a showing of double the per capita wealth of the famous beach city, it seems not impertinent or invidious for Santa Ana to be heard on the subject. So here goes.

The Long Beach Press goes on to show that the bank deposits in Long Beach, conceded to be one of the prosperous and wealthy cities of the coast, total something over seven millions of dollars, or a per capita for every man, woman and child of $187.

A little figuring from the statements of the Redlands banks, by the Redlands Facts, makes a very much higher showing for the beautiful foothills city, which has been just a little bit in the doldrums, in the ideas of some people, since the freeze of a year and a half ago. The figures for Redlands are as follows: Total deposits, $3,644,551.92. "Assuming," says the Facts, "that our population is 10,000, that makes a per capita here of $364.45, or just about twice that in Long Beach. Oh, we are doing very well, thank you. And to quote the Press further, but to doubly emphasize its remarks, because our deposits are just twice as much—what does this indicate?"

"It indicates a greater measure of substantial prosperity here than some may be disposed to recognize or admit. Periods of real business and industrial depression hit bank deposits hard. Loss of confidence on the part of the people means loss of deposits by the banks. So far as depositors are concerned, there seems to be no serious lack of confidence here in local and general conditions. Just as conditions here justify the faith of the bank depositor, so do conditions justify faith on the part of the investor."

All of which is very pertinent and true and significant and some other things. But hear ye, now, from Santa Ana. The bank statements called for by the Controller of the Currency during the first week in July show deposits in the banks of this city of $5,031,904.45. A liberal estimate of our population is 12,000. That gives us a per capita wealth of a fraction over $419.30.

So you see we are somewhat long on prosperity and confidence in the banks ourselves.

UP WIDESPREAD INTEREST

(Publication Requested by the Farmers and Fruit Growers' Federation, 740 Consolidated Realty Bldg., Los Angeles.)

Reports received from all parts of California the past week by the Farmers and Fruit Growers' Federation indicate that more general interest is being manifested by voters in the proposed "Universal 8-Hour Law" than in any other of the fifty-seven constitutional amendments, initiative laws and referendum propositions to be voted upon at the November election, with the possible exception of the Prohibition measure.

The Farmers and Fruit Growers' Federation, just organized to oppose the 8-hour measure, which was placed on the ballot by Socialist party petitions, has launched a campaign of education covering the eight counties of Southern California, with headquarters at 740 Consolidated Realty Building, Los Angeles.

Farmers all over California are organizing against the 8-hour law, which they contend would be ruinous to agricultural interests because the measure as submitted is universal and inflexible, making no exemptions whatever to allow for the necessities of harvest time, when ripe crops would be sacrificed and the profits of the year lost under such drastic restrictions.

All interests whose property is directly dependent upon successful farming in California will watch with keenest interest the progress of the farmers' fight against the proposition of the radical Socialists. The proposed law provides a maximum penalty of 90 days in jail and $500 fine for any employer who permits any employee to work more than eight hours in one day or more than forty-eight hours in one week. It would be revolutionary to California agriculture, which produced a total wealth last year of $371,779,668, and the importance of the question therefore can scarcely be over-estimated. The Socialists' law

REGISTER TODAY!

There is only a little more than a week left in which those who wish may register for the primary election. Surely no voter in Santa Ana needs to be told of his obligation in this matter. Each citizen owes it to himself and the government of which he is a part to exercise all the functions of his citizenship. Among the most important of these are the nomination of candidates and their election. In both of these every citizen must participate if he would do his full duty. Registration is the first essential to the performance of this obligation. If you are not on the rolls, register, and do it now.

as submitted embraces every occupation, trade and craft, including women.

The cost of living would be increased to everybody by the law, which would entail an economic waste of time and produce of fully 20 per cent, cause chaos and havoc in all industry and constitute a serious menace to general prosperity. It is urged also that it is discriminatory and experimental. It will be Proposition No. 3 on the November ballot.

L. A. TERM TRIAL JURY
COMMENDS JUDGE CRAIG

Pays High Compliment to Candidate for Presiding Justice of the Appellate Court

Judge Craig was paid a high tribute yesterday by members of the term trial jury in his department of the criminal court in a memorial signed by them. It reads as follows:

"We, the members of the term trial jury of Department Eighteen under Judge Gavin W. Craig, desire hereby to express to him our appreciation of the kind and considerate attention which he has shown us during our work. We further desire to commend him for his efficient service as a judge, recognizing in him a capable and upright jurist, and gladly recommend him to the voters of the Second District in his candidacy for presiding justice of the District Court of Appeal."

It was signed by C. H. Ainley, A. W. McCormick, John T. Sumney, C. N. Sutton, J. P. Miller, James W. Calvert, C. Keiser, Donald W. Hare, Chas. Lloyd, W. C. Denning, Silas W. Lyman, Elbert Bell, James Forbes, Thompson Cooper, C. D. Jones, J. M. Cooke, C. C. Goodwin, J. S. Turner, T. C. Williams, W. E. Fowler and Cyrus Baldwin.

CITY TALKLETS

"Santa Ana is gradually getting a reputation among tourists," said F. W. Fuller, manager of the Dragon Confectionery, today. "I was returning from Catalina Island not so very long ago when I chanced to overhear a conversation between two men from the South. 'Where would be a good place for me to go to see some of the orange groves that I've heard about?' asked one of the men. 'Well,' answered the other, 'there are lots of orange groves at Riverside and Redlands, but there is a little town called Santa Ana and, believe me, they've got SOME country there.' So you see," Fuller went on, "Santa Ana really is on the map when it comes to having a reputation."

"This is the best little 'burg' in the country," said A. Hoffman, of the Santa Ana Produce Company. "Look at the crops back of this city, the diversified products. Look at the money that has just been turned loose for labor at the hundreds of apricot pitting camps. There isn't a better city anywhere than Santa Ana."

"The Register is a good newspaper," said Architect F. Flood Walker today. "It is nicely gotten up, well printed and up-to-date. In fact, for a city the size of Santa Ana the paper is one of the best I have seen."

FORTY CARS MELONS ARE SENT OUT FROM TURLOCK

TURLOCK, July 20.—Forty cars of melons and cantaloupes have been shipped from Turlock since the opening of the season. Prices have dropped from $15 to $11 and $12 a ton. The market, however, is rapidly widening. The prevailing prices here are $1 per crate for ponies and $1.40 for standard size. It is expected the shipping in carload lots will be in full swing in a few days.

Politics in the Home

Edwin Markham in L. A. Examiner

A good text book for any man or woman studying the science and art of government is "Political Parties and Party Problems in the United States," by James Albert Woodburn, professor of American history and politics in the Indiana University. I quote a bit from his introductory survey:

"It is quite certain that the study of politics in American schools and colleges has received a notable increase of attention within the last decade. Other educational agencies—the home, the press, the pulpit, the literary club, the civic federation—have all been emphasizing the need of civic training."

"To study politics in any serious sense is but to make a large use of history, to learn the lessons of experience for future guidance. When we of man and the political spirit and man and the wonderful part it has played in the history of the world, especially in the Anglo-Saxon state, it will be conceded that no part of man's being is more worthy of attention and cultivation."

"Ordinary political issues may not call for discussion in school and home."

"But when the political rectitude of the people is brought into issue; when rich men are known to buy their way into high office; when it becomes an actual question whether a state shall surrender its virtue to outrage and its people to pillage; when unscrupulous men deliberately, openly and unashamedly set about to corrupt the electorate of great commonwealths and yet are permitted to stand for the highest honors of their states—at such times ordinary issues would seem to fade into insignificance, and appeals should be made to the moral forces that constitute the foundations of our political society."

"In the face of such issues teachers, parents and the moral pastors of the people should make politics a matter of personal concern."

Harbor Excursion
Friday, July 24

From Santa Ana to Los Angeles Harbor

Leave Fourth and Main at 9:30 a. m.

You who have visited the Harbor in search of investments and were disappointed in not looking at close to water property now have the opportunity, as there never was, and never will be property like the San Pedro Tide Water Tract to inspect.

When you step off the cars on this excursion you stand on the Wilmington and San Pedro boulevard with the tide water on one side and our property on the other.

Property like this similarly located in any ocean or lake city is worth from $1000 per foot upwards.

When you go with us to inspect the Tide Water Tract you are not going one to three miles back from the water, but right to the very water's edge.

Nothing was ever offered like it before and never can be again.

Tickets for this excursion can be secured of Kelley & Rogers at Rossmore Hotel, Thursday, July 23, 10 a. m. to 8 p. m.

VISITING MASONS

East Gate Lodge of Los Angeles Royally Entertained in Divers Ways

Saturday afternoon and evening Santa Ana Lodge No. 241, F. and A. M., had as guests eighty-five members, including the officers of East Gate Lodge No. 290, F. and A. M., of Los Angeles. This is a return visit of East Gate Lodge.

The Los Angeles visitors came down in two special Electric Cars, arriving here at 3:30 p. m. They were met by a committee of local Masons and taken to the Masonic Temple, where automobiles were in waiting to take their brethren to the Mystic Tie on a ride that would reveal to them some of the many beautiful spots of Orange county. Twenty-three autos were loaded with visitors. Think! "23"—the hoodoo number! However, the official guide of the party, the city marshal, Jovial San Jernigan, seemed to be the only one hoodooed. Sam had a blowout just as the party was leaving Lemon Heights, and with hat and coat off he disconsolately watched the others go by, giving him the merry ha, ha, as they passed. A. N. Zernan thought that his engine had been touched by "23," but some one suggested that he give it a drink, and the fatal number had no further terrors for him.

After a short drive through Santa Ana the party was piloted to Tustin, then out over Irvine boulevard and on up to beautiful Lemon Heights. The view from the Heights at present is most beautiful. The thousands of acres of beans stretched to the south and west, with groves of oranges and lemons in all other directions, combine to make the most beautiful agricultural and horticultural scene in California.

Some of the visitors had seen Lemon Heights when it was a sheep pasture, and the transformation to orange and lemon groves, bordered with hedges of roses and geraniums, was to them most marvelous. Many had never seen extensive bean cultivation and the vast area, containing 21,000 acres of beans was a most wonderful sight.

After drinking in all the scenic beauties to be seen from Lemon Heights, the party was hurried to the most beautiful spot in Orange county, Hewes' hill. Here the Masons were received with genuine Southern California hospitality by Mr. David Hewes. He had prepared several gallons of lemonade and orangeade, and from tables covered with snowy linen and placed under the trees, five Japanese, clad in white, served the finest of wafers and the delicious cooling citrus fruit drinks. Mr. Hewes was himself present to receive the visitors and a most royal reception it was. He shook hands with nearly all, and had a cheerful word for each. But all good things must come to an end, and so it was with this. After giving the rousing cheers for the host of the hour, the party left to visit his packing houses, and at his request helped themselves to as much fruit as they wanted. When they left the packing houses, two or three boxes of fine valencias left with them, besides considerable grapefruit. Long live David Hewes, was the unanimous sentiment expressed for one of Orange county's most enterprising citizens.

The party then motored back to Santa Ana by way of Orange. A chicken banquet was served at 6 o'clock at Masonic Temple, where 225 people were seated at the generously loaded tables.

At 7:45 o'clock the officers of East Gate Lodge took charge of the lodge work and in a beautiful and impres-

PLEASANT SURPRISE

Dr. and Mrs. Littell Entertain in Honor of Birthday of Their Niece

Pleasant Surprise
On Friday evening, July 17th, Dr. and Mrs. Littell gave a surprise in honor of the seventeenth birthday of their niece, Miss Irma Davis. Games and music were enjoyed. Light refreshments were served and all left at a late hour declaring Miss Davis an ideal hostess.

Those present to enjoy the affair were Mesdames Minnie Porter, Cener Stockton, Edith Condra, Arvilla Mahoney, Marguerite Moe; Misses Mary Marr, Elva May, Marie House, Clara Walton, Bessie Hobson, Eunice Stockton, Lola Bullock, May Wallace; Messrs. Robert Hobson, Carl May, Charlie Bullock, Howard Ryan, Myrtle Thompson, Ralph Chase, Hugh Galloway, Zeno Hobson, Fred Mahoney, Tom Stockton, Jasper Stockton, C. C. Condra, Maurice Stockton.

Birthday Party
Miss Mildred Holden was the honoree of a birthday party held recently at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Ditchey, 930 Bishop street. There were sixteen present and a delightful time was enjoyed. Cake, ice cream and fruit were served after an evening of games. Many gifts were received by Miss Holden.

Personals

Dr. Frank E. Winter has moved his office from 411½ North Main street to Dr. Shaul's office at 1101½ East Fourth, where he will continue his practice as physician and surgeon. Dr. Shaul has taken adjoining rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Buck motored to Los Angeles this morning. They will return this evening.

Mrs. Olive Lopez and her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. H. Schwalm, returned this morning from a three days' stay at Newport Beach. Mrs. Schwalm, who has been here for the past week, went on to her home in San Bernardino, and Mrs. Lopez is acting as social editor for the week for the Blade.

Bishop Hughes, the eloquent bishop of the Methodist Church, whom California claims for her own, will lecture tonight at the First Methodist Church on the plan to wipe the saloon out of California. That his hundreds of admirers will crowd the church goes without saying.

Mrs. Bert Campbell and daughter have gone to Manhattan Beach for a stay of indefinite length. Mrs. Campbell is just recovering from a several weeks' illness, and will stay at the seaside until she gets strong.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Quick were guests yesterday and today at Newport Beach of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Burns.

THE BASQUE COMING BACK INTO FASHION

French houses are predicting the basque for the not distant future, and while it is a little early to say whether it will be universally adopted, the costume of the sketch looks very much like a forerunner. It was worn at one of the races held near Paris very recently.

The long tunic of the skirt, which reaches to within three or four inches of the skirt proper, is extremely full and in indicative of the shorter and wider skirt which may soon become popular. The effect of this tunic is very new and smart. The material used for the costume was a very soft and light quality duvety in a dark shade of blue. A little roll collar of white organdie finished the neck, and a touch of the same material was introduced on the cuffs. The only trimming was a half dozen medium sized black buttons, which started at the V-shaped neck and extended almost the length of the waist, and this was pulled down loosely over the hips and gave somewhat the effect of the loose girdles which we are now wearing.

BARBECUE IS BIG SUCCESS

Forster Brothers, Capistrano, Voted Royal Entertainers by County Elks

The third annual barbecue and entertainment given by the Forster brothers at Capistrano for Orange county Elks and more particularly for Santa Ana Lodge No. 794 yesterday was an unqualified success, more than 200 of the antlered heroes being on hand to enjoy the hospitality of the genial hosts.

As usual the big feature of the day was the barbecue. This was served at 12:15 and the way in which the hungry Elks "pitched into" the big assortment of culinary dainties was ample proof of the excellence of the dishes. Veal and beef, prepared in Spanish style, disappeared with startling rapidity as did also the tortillas and "chili beans."

The afternoon was taken up with horse races and other diversions. Altogether the affair proved one of the most successful of any so far given by the Forsters. The guests, most of whom drove down to the Mission Town in their automobiles, began taking their leave about 4 o'clock.

Music for the day was furnished by Krieger's Orchestra, Santa Ana, and proved an enjoyable part of the day's entertainment.

SUGAR BEET SCALES PUT IN BALANCE

County Sealer Makes Rounds of Dumps, Inspecting Weighing Apparatus

Within the next two or three days every scale in use in this county in weighing sugar beets will have been put into first class shape and inspected.

George McPhee, county sealer of weights and measures, was busy all last week inspecting scales at various beet dumps in this county. Two weeks ago he notified the five sugar factories that it was his purpose to make the inspection, and that it was his advice that each factory have an expert scales man go over the apparatus at each dump and at each factory and see that everything about the scales was in perfect condition.

During last week McPhee inspected scales belonging to the Southern California Sugar Co., the Santa Ana Co. Operative Sugar Co. and the Anaheim Sugar Co., and found the scales of those companies perfectly adjusted and ready for the opening of the sugar beet hauling season.

The Holly Sugar Co. has an expert scales man going over its scales today, and McPhee will inspect them tomorrow or Wednesday. The Los Alamitos Sugar Co. has scales at its factory at Los Alamitos, but has no other scales in this county. Nearly all of its beets are within wagon haul. It has a dump at Carmelita, which is in Los Angeles county and therefore out of McPhee's territory. McPhee will test the Los Alamitos factory scales either tomorrow or Wednesday.

McPhee states that all of the factories are prepared for a big campaign. The beets are in fine condition. Hauling for the Santa Ana Co. Operative began last week.

Stops Neuralgia—Kills Pain
Shan's Liniment gives instant relief from Neuralgia or Sciatica. It goes straight to the painful part—Soothes the Nerves and Stops the Pain. It is also good for Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Chest Pains and Sprains. You don't need to rub—it penetrates. Mr. J. R. Swinger, Louisville, Ky., writes: "I suffered with quite a severe Neuralgia Headache for four months without any relief. I used Shan's Liniment for two or three nights and I haven't suffered with my head since." Get a bottle today. Keep in the house all the time for pains and all hurts. 25c, 50c and $1.00, at your druggist. Bucklen's Arnica Salve for all sores.—Advertisement.

TRIO SWIMS TO THE END OF THE PIER

Huntington Beach News: Last Thursday morning Henry Brooks, Fred Ott and Harold Boardman, three of the local swimmers, plunged out through the breakers and swam to the end of the pier. The bout was won by Harold, who performed the stunt in nine minutes. Henry followed half a minute later, while Fred cantered along about two minutes behind.

The boys report that a strong current was encountered at the end of the pier, which made landing somewhat difficult.

AT ONCE! CLOGGED NOSTRILS OPEN HEAD COLDS AND CATARRH VANISH

Breathe Freely! Clears Stuffed-up, Inflamed Nose and Head and Stops Catarrhal Discharge. Cures Dull Headache.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it. Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold, head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone. End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dripping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.—Advertisement.

SPLENDID NEW EDIFICE WAS DEDICATED

German Lutheran Church at Orange is One of Finest in the County

(By Staff Correspondent)
ORANGE, July 20.—Dedication exercises were held yesterday for the new German Lutheran church, just completed here at a cost of about $44,000. Tremendous crowds were in attendance at each of the three services, many people being turned away, unable to gain entrance. Estimates place the attendance figures at 1300 for the morning service, 1200 for the afternoon and 1500 for the evening, with about 1000 turned away from the last service.

Two dedicatory sermons were preached, one in German at the morning service, by Rev. George Meier of Olive, and one in English at the evening service, by Rev. E. J. Rudnick of San Bernardino. Long and elaborate programs were carried out through the day, closing exercises at the old church preceding the opening of the doors of the new edifice.

St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church is one of the finest buildings of its kind in Orange county. The interior decorating and finish is beautiful while on the outside the building has an appearance of grandeur and dignity. It is planned in the Gothic style of architecture. The equipment is of the finest, including a pipe organ installed at an expense of seven thousand dollars.

The crowds at the dedication broke all attendance records for Orange.

The funeral of Arnold A. Percelet, formerly of Olive, who met his death at Redding last week in a railroad accident, was held Saturday at Long Beach, where his mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Meyers, make their home. Services were conducted by Rev. Hugh K. Walker, pastor of a Long Beach Presbyterian church, at 1:30 p. m. Quite a number of friends from this city attended, the services being held in the Mottel undertaking parlors. George Gulick, Earl Crawford and Lou Bartz of Olive assisted as pallbearers. Burial was made in Sunnyside cemetery.

Mrs. George Eastman, wife of the engineer at the county rock crushing plant, received a broken arm yesterday while crossing an irrigating ditch near the plant. She fell while stepping across the ditch and fractured the arm.

The Orange baseball team was defeated Saturday in a fast game on the local grounds by the Pacific Electric of Los Angeles. With the score 2 to 2 in the fourth inning and the game apparently well in hand, Lush was taken out to save him up. Schuler, who replaced him, pitched good ball, but the breaks were against him and the visitors pushed over two scores.

Miss Adele L. Yone of Los Angeles was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Orgibet at the Sunshine apartments. She motored home with Dr. and Mrs. John Oldham of Los Angeles, who were also callers in Orange yesterday.

Chris Awe and family of Tustin, Albert Shields, and the Misses Emma and Elma Shields of Long Beach visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Porter in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gise and son, Billy, and Mrs. Myers of Los Angeles, spent yesterday with local relatives.

Miss Chella Moore was home from Los Angeles to spend yesterday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Moore. Los Angeles visitors today were Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Beckman and daughter, Margaret; Mrs. A. B. Bibber, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gathercole, Mrs. H. Munhall and Miss Laura Munhall.

Prof. William Meeske of the German Lutheran parochial school left this morning for a vacation of three weeks in San Francisco and Bay points.

T. H. Elijah has purchased a new Buick touring car of the model 25 type.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Carhart left today for their home in Mitchell, S. D., after spending several months in Orange.

Among the Orange people, who spent yesterday at Balboa were, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Potter, Earl Pine, Clyde Slater, Eugene Park, Edwin Pister, Mrs. M. B. Thompson and family, S. A. Marsden, Hubert Tumann, Gerard Goddard, Ray Holderman, Mrs. M. L. Willets, Miss Anita Willets, Miss Sylvia Spotts, Miss Vera Johnson and Dr. A. H. Tyrrell.

Philip Dornseil of Los Angeles, was here to spend Sunday with relatives. Mrs. Charles Lighthall and two children of Lindsay are spending some time here and at Garden Grove with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Love of Los Angeles, Mrs. Alice Love of Topeka, Kansas, and Prof. Carroll Forbes, instructor of mining engineering in the State School of Mines at Rolla, Mo., spent yesterday with H. Z. Adams and Miss S. Celia Adams on East Chapman avenue.

Mrs. C. W. Thornburg and daughter, Miss Lulu Thornburg, who has been visiting here from the northern part of the state, left today for Long Beach to spend six weeks.

The Fraternal Aid picnic at Long Beach, Saturday, drew quite a crowd from here, three of them taking first prizes in the races. Mrs. W. D. Peterkin, Mrs. C. B. Christenson and H. S. Campbell were the lucky contestants. Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Christenson, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Teel, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Campbell and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Peterkin and daughter, Mr. E. Jones, Mrs. L. B. Mitchell, Miss Rose Pharis and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Campbell.

FULL WIDTH OF GARDEN GROVE STREETS

Paving is Being Done in Thriving City—Laying Water Mains

GARDEN GROVE, July 20.—The property owners have entered into an agreement to pave two blocks at the heart of the city along the entire distance between the twenty-foot paved strip which the county is putting down and the curb. The work has been begun. The county good-roads strip is about completed, which will give an all-paved highway from Anaheim to Santa Ana through this place. The plan to consolidate the three local water companies did not materialize exactly as suggested. But two of the companies will evidently consolidate and make provision for the supply of the central part of the town with abundant water. The mains are being laid along Ocean avenue and the work will be pushed.

HOBBO CONVENTION TO ATTRACT 2000

Knights of the Road Will Ask Congress for Exclusion of Immigrants for 5 Years

CHICAGO, July 20.—The great fraternity of stray men will meet at Chicago in the first week of August—the International Itinerant Workers' Union, Hoboes of America. From every point of the compass the delegates are coming—on, in and under box cars, flat cars and blind baggage, and possibly a few, a very few, are "hitting the ties."

Two thousand delegates are scheduled to appear, and Jeff Davis, king of the hoboes, says a larger majority of the expected attends their convention than any other gathering on earth.

Hobo Held Title of Honor
Davis is the man who says "hobo" is one of the highest compliments that can be paid to a man, since "it is a contraction of 'homo bonus,' which is the Latin for 'good man.'"

Davis proudly points to James Eads Howe, millionaire hobo and philanthropist; Mayor Frank Seymour of Tacoma, Governor Hooper of Tennessee, Barrett O'Hara, lieutenant governor of Illinois; State Senator Campbell of Washington, all members of the Hoboes of America, and many others, including students of Harvard, Yale, Purdue, Valparaiso and other universities, and successful business and professional men all over the United States, who were once "up against it."

Will Demand Bill Passage
The hoboes at this convention will ask Congress and President Wilson for the support and passage of a bill looking to the exclusion of all immigrants from the United States for five years.

There are 50,000 women in this country, mostly girls, who have met with adversity, who are hoboes. The convention will try to interest wealthy women who once were "up against it" to help these girls, says Davis.

PORTERVILLE TO FORM NEW CITRUS ASSOCIATION

PORTERVILLE, July 20.—A new citrus association is about to be formed here, according to F. L. Kennedy, former manager of the Porterville Citrus Association, who will promote the new organization. Fruit from about 300 acres has already been pledged. The old packing houses used by the former company will be used by the new one. An extra fancy pack is the scheme of the promoters.

Old Civil Service Examination
Lady Dorothy Nevill, in one of her books, gave an amusing example of the style of examination for posts in the civil service which prevailed before the advent of the competitive system. The young candidate was ushered into the room of the old chief clerk of the department, and this order followed:

"Sit down, sir," roared a voice of thunder. Then, after a painful pause: "Now, sir, attention. I shall examine you in arithmetic."

"Shall I not have pen and paper?" "No, sir," thundered out the tyrant voice. "Attention! How much are two and two?"

Paralyzed by the voice and sudden question, the youth stared and then gasped out quite seriously: "Four, sir."

"Quite right, sir," roared out the examiner, slapping him on the back. "You'll do, sir."

But the question surely should have been: "How many blue beans make five?"—London Chronicle.

Cabbage or Salad Dressing
Melt in a double boiler one generous tablespoonful of butter. Add to it one tablespoonful of flour, one teaspoonful of sugar, one-half teaspoonful of made mustard, three dashes of paprika, one-quarter teaspoonful of salt, white pepper to taste. When these are well blended add slowly, stirring constantly to avoid lumps, one-half pint of boiling water and three drops of Worcestershire sauce. Continue stirring until thick. Cook five minutes; if too thick put in a little more water. If should the dressing be for cold salad pour it while hot over finely shredded cabbage, if for salads use when cold.

JUMPED AND BROKE LEG

Visitor to Orange Would Have Been Safe if Remained in Buggy

ORANGE, July 20.—Mrs. Roland Smith of South Omaha, Neb., who has been visiting at the home of J. H. Kurtz near here, suffered a broken leg yesterday as a result of jumping from a buggy when a part of the harness broke.

Mrs. Smith was out driving in a buggy, carrying her three-year-old son, Richard, in her arms. Milton Kurtz, son of J. H., was driving. While going down a slight grade a part of the harness broke, allowing the vehicle to run down against the horse. Fearing the animal would bolt, Mrs. Smith jumped, still holding the babe in her arms. She is a heavy woman, and the jump resulted in the fracture of both bones of her right leg. The little one was badly scared, but escaped otherwise with a few scratches.

Strange to say, the boy kept control of the horse, and guided it successfully to the foot of the grade, where a stop was made.

Mrs. Smith was picked up by E. E. Keech of Santa Ana, who passed in his automobile. She was taken to the Kurtz home and was given surgical attention. The pain was almost unbearable and she passed a night of suffering, both from the injury and the nervous shock.

DISMISSAL WAS DENIED

Attorneys for Herbert Dyer Claimed Trial Was Unduly Postponed

Herbert Dyer of Anaheim, charged with a serious offense against his 14-year-old step-daughter, Hester Butler, went on trial in department 1 of the Superior Court, with Judge Bledsoe of San Bernardino presiding, this morning.

At the opening of the trial the attorneys for the defense made a motion to dismiss the indictment on the ground that the case had been continued over for a period greater than sixty days, without the consent of both sides, and that there was no sufficient reason for this continuance. After argument Judge Bledsoe denied the motion, and the work of selecting a jury was begun.

Whittall Rugs

The problem of floor covering is the first essential of interior decoration. When you enter a house your glance rests on the floor; your first impressions, always the most lasting, prejudice the mind favorable or unfavorable in regard to the taste displayed by the owner of the house; quality, coloring and design influence you intuitively.

The Oriental Rug is without question the acme of perfection when fine examples are considered. The market today is flooded with new productions of Oriental Rugs cleverly "treated" or "doctored" to obtain that antique effect; even these are held at prices far beyond the reach of the majority of people of refined tastes.

It has been the aim of M. J. Whittall, the leading manufacturer of high-grade rugs in the United States, to develop rugs to the point of excellency where they rival the imported rug in fineness of weave, superiority of design, lasting color and esthetic value.

The worth of the Oriental school is acknowledged by the Whittall factory, from which they have developed colorings and designs. Many of the Whittall Rugs are copied from rare examples of some of the original Oriental patterns that are held by collectors who prize them at fabulous prices on account of their rarity of design and marvel of color.

Whittall domestic reproductions of Oriental examples offered by us at reasonable prices could not be purchased in the originals for hundreds and sometimes thousands of dollars. Some of the finest of these examples will actually outwear most Orientals. Wearing qualities are combined with artistic designs and colorings.

No Purchaser of a Whittall Rug Has to Contend With the Vexatious Problem of the Good Sense of Harmony

We have recently added the Whittall line, including the Anglo-Persian, the Finest Rug made in America; the Anglo-Indian and their High-grade Body Brussels. These Rugs are within the reach of all who want a Rug of Quality.

ON TRIAL FOR THE KILLING OF EDITOR

story of French courts. They include well known literary men, politicians, journalists and social personages known throughout Europe. The audience will be none the less brilliant, although but few can be admitted. The space available is limited and scores of visiting lawyers, diplomatic representatives of foreign powers in Paris, newspaper correspondents and others must necessarily be taken care of.

Attorney Ferdinand Labori, representing Mme. Caillaux, and assisted very quietly by the accused woman's husband, is said to be planning a surprise for the prosecution. It is said he may try to prove that Calmette died, not directly as the result of his bullet wounds, but because of useless delays on the part of attending surgeons to operate. Had they done so, according to experts said to have been summoned, Calmette would be alive today and would have been up and about ten days after the shooting. It is known that the "brain storm" plan will be entered by the noted attorney in defense of his client. A bitter fight will be made to save the beautiful woman from imprisonment for the crime which she says she was driven to commit by the bitter attacks that had been made upon her husband. Mme. Caillaux had said that she did not go to Calmette's office with the intention of killing him, but desired merely to frighten him and "teach him a lesson."

Mme. Caillaux shot Calmette in the latter's office at the Le Figaro, March 16, after the editor had printed, as a culmination of a bitter campaign against Joseph Caillaux, a letter of a personal nature said by some to have been written by Caillaux to his present wife while she was the wife of another. This, however, has been denied. In any event the letter was from Caillaux to a lady and there were rumors that two or three other letters from Caillaux to the woman now bearing his name, were to be printed by "Le Figaro."

Mme. Caillaux wished to get possession of these letters. She decided to visit the Le Figaro offices. An automatic revolver was concealed in her muff. Soon after she was admitted to Calmette's office six shots rang out. The editor was found gasping in his chair, four bullet wounds in his body. Mme. Caillaux still held the revolver in her hand. She was calm and cool, quietly submitted to arrest and was imprisoned.
